Chamber Announces: "We're Going to Baltimore!"

Russ Carraker, 2006 Inter-City Leadership Conference Chair announced to the Chamber Board of Directors that this year's conference will take place in Baltimore, Maryland. The dates for the conference will be October 4-6, 2006.

Baltimore, located on the Chesapeake Bay is just 45 minutes from Washington, D.C. It is home to the world-famous Inner Harbor and is Maryland's largest city. It is also known for its world-class healthcare, anchored by the Johns Hopkins University and its associated hospitals.

The City of Baltimore and the surrounding metropolitan areas are noted for one of the highest ratings for quality-of-life in the nation. The City's many attributes make it an ideal location for new and expanding businesses and for relocating employees by offering affordable cost of living, great neighborhoods, world famous art collections, museums, theaters, and symphony orchestras, easy access to public transportation systems, superior health care systems, renowned university and educational resources, major league sports teams, historic parks and a waterfront filled with recreational opportunities.

Ask any Baltimorean what you should do when you come to town, and invariably, they'll direct you to a crab fest. The food is diverse and plentiful in this harbor town. While many visitors may confine their activities to the Inner Harbor, the heart and soul of the city can be found in its historic neighborhoods. The dozens of communities that fan out from the waterfront reflect the real Baltimore.
